

BUDGETARY POLICY AND INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Financial Economics Faculty

Year of study: 5th

Credits: 3,5 ECTS

Practical classes: 126

Optional

Lecturers: Senior Lecturer A. Dedikov

Purpose: formation of knowledge about the nature of fiscal policy and intergovernmental relations of a state; mastering practical skills of payments by intergovernmental transfers.

Objective: to study the nature and elements of fiscal policy, the nature and elements of intergovernmental relations; to study public administration activity in shaping budget policy, to study the order of budget transfer calculations, the use of the basic financial tools, the role of fiscal policy and intergovernmental relations in the economy of Ukraine.

Subject: fiscal policy, patterns of intergovernmental relations and their development, legal and regulatory framework of fiscal policy and intergovernmental relations.

Content of the subject is revealed in the topics: Essence and elements of fiscal policy and intergovernmental relations. Fiscal policy as part of financial policy. The budget mechanism and its components. Budget strategy and tactics. Regulation of intergovernmental relations. Intergovernmental relations and the system of fiscal equalization. Planning and financing the order of budget transfers. Intergovernmental relations in the system of budget forecasting. The effectiveness of intergovernmental relations as a result of fiscal policy. Fiscal policy: the experience of foreign countries.

Supporting lectures and practical classes: computer, multimedia equipment, didactic materials.

Assessment: written test, performance of individual tasks, test, lecture and practical modules, examination.

Teaching methods: interactive (thought-provoking) lectures, role plays, case studies, business simulations.

Instructional Support: reference compendium of lectures, teaching materials, control tests.

Examination method: written test.

Registration for the course: none.

Registration for the exam: as scheduled.

Language: Ukrainian or Russian.