

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

Financial Economics Faculty

Year of study: 5th

Credits: 3,5 ECTS

Practical classes: 126

Optional

Lecturers: Professor O. Galushko

Purpose: formation of knowledge about the nature of international finance, practical skills in dealing with the use of international financial relations to get profit, integration of Ukrainian economy into the world economic community.

Objective: To study the nature and elements of international finance system, characteristics of the world finance market and its segments; to study the activity of participants in international financial relations, to use basic financial tools, to identify the role of Ukraine in the global financial sector.

Subject: patterns of international financial relations, their development, legal and regulatory framework of international financial relations.

Content of discipline is revealed in the topics: International finance as an integral part of the global economy. Foreign exchange relations and foreign exchange system. The world financial market. The export of capital and international investment. Taxation in international relations. International payments. Balance of international payments.

Supporting lectures and practical classes: computer, multimedia equipment, didactic materials.

Assessment: written test, performance of individual tasks, test, lecture and practical modules, examination.

Teaching methods: interactive (thought-provoking) lectures, role plays, case studies, business simulations.

Instructional support: reference compendium of lectures, teaching materials, control tests.

Examination method: written examination.

Registration for the course: none.

Registration for the exam: as scheduled.

Language: Ukrainian or Russian.