

ANALYSIS OF GLOBAL AND NATIONAL ECONOMY

Financial Economics Faculty

Year of study: 4th

Credits: 5 ECTS

Practical classes: 180

Optional

Lecturers: Professor O. Galushko

Purpose: To acquire the knowledge of methodology and analysis techniques for the global and national economy.

Objective: To study the methods and tools of macroeconomic analysis of the economy, to gain skills of analytical evaluation of macroeconomic trends in the economy, forecasting such trends and to identify key areas of stabilization.

Subject: patterns of economic development.

Content of the subject is revealed in the topics: The global economy - integration processes. Methods for analyzing the global and national economy. Areas of analysis of the national economy. Information base for incoming data on the state of the national economy. Analysis of the national economy in national accounts. Analysis of some branches of the national economy. Modern forms of integration of national economies. Globalization processes and their impact on the global and national economy. Information Base for obtaining input for the analysis of the global economy. Database of the World Bank and development indicators. Methods of analysis of the structure and dynamics of the international economic and financial organizations, their goals, objectives and outcomes.

Supporting lectures and practical classes: computer, multimedia equipment, didactic materials.

Assessment: written test, performance of individual tasks, test, lecture and practical modules, test.

Teaching methods: interactive (thought-provoking) lectures, role plays, case-studies, business simulations

Instructional Support: reference compendium of lectures, teaching materials, tests.

Examination method: written test

Registration for the course: none.

Registration for the exam: as scheduled.

Language: Ukrainian or Russian.